

CREATURES FROM THE CRYPT

Friday 8th September 6.30pm
The Old Sessions House, Longport, Canterbury

Professor Sandy Heslop
University of East Anglia

The Organisation and Decoration of St Anselm's Crypt in Canterbury Cathedral

Do come and hear eminent medieval art and architectural historian Professor Sandy Heslop discuss the context and interior of Canterbury Cathedral's wonderful Romanesque crypt. What do these fantastic beasts and hybrids carved on the crypt capitals mean? How do they connect to St Anselm? Why is the crypt such a significant sacred space?

All welcome: this is a free event.
Call CCCU Box Office on 01227 782994 for more details

